

SECOND WEEK

Vocabulary

back	-> dos
baker	-> boulanger
bridge	-> pont
daughter	-> fille (de seprents)
eyebrow	-> sourcil
rock	-> rocher
sand	-> sable
bushy	-> foisonneux, épais
dry	-> sec
sharp	-> pointu
wooden	-> en bois
to enjoy	-> (bien) aimer
to escape	-> s'enfuir
to fight	-> combattre
to go canoeing	-> faire du canoë
to knock	-> frapper
to lean back	-> se pencher en arrière
to light - lit - lit	-> allumer
to remember	-> se rappeler
to scream	-> hurler
to wipe	-> essuyer
by heart	-> par coeur
far from	-> loin de
what's the matter ?	-> que se passe-t-il ?

Dictation

Clare is a boarder. She lives at St Luke's during the week. And she often stays there at the weekend. Last Saturday Mark organized a school-outing. They went canoeing. But something terrible happened : Clare saw a big black spider and she screamed. She didn't want to stay in the canoe and she jumped into the lake. What an awful morning !